REPORT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

To the Board of Directors
ASG Securities, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of ASG Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2005, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with United States generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above, present fairly in all material respects, the financial position of ASG Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2005, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with United States generally accepted accounting principles.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules 1, 2 and 3 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2005

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed in the preparation of the financial statements. The policies are based on United States generally accepted accounting principles.

Organization and Business - The Company was incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware on December 17, 1997, for the purpose of selling investment products and securities and other services related to investment advisement, money management, or other business services. On February 13, 2004, the Company reincorporated in the State of Florida. Essentially all of the operations of the Company ceased in July, 2003, but the Company is maintaining its license on an active basis.

Customers, Broker-Dealers, Trading Inventory and Investment Balances - The Company is a registered broker-dealer and maintains its accounts on a settlement date basis; however, the accompanying financial statements are prepared on a trade date basis. The Company is an introducing broker, and as such, clears all transactions through a correspondent broker which carries all customer and company accounts and maintains physical custody of customer and company securities.

All trading and investment securities are valued at quoted market price and unrealized gains and losses are included in revenues from firm trading. As of December 31, 2005, the Company owned only one (1) security which was considered to have no value.

Income Taxes - For income tax purposes, the Company accounts for all trading securities owned on a market value basis. The Company uses the liability method to determine its income tax expense, which requires that deferred tax assets and liabilities are computed based on differences between financial reporting and tax basis of assets and liabilities, and are measured using the enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Use of Estimates - The financial statements have been prepared in conformity with United States generally accepted accounting principles and, as such, include amounts based on informed estimates and judgments of management with consideration given to materiality. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Deferred Tax Assets - For financial reporting purposes, deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance if, based on the weight of the available evidence, it is more likely than not that all or some portion of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of the deferred tax asset depends on the Company's ability to generate sufficient taxable income in the future.

NOTE 2 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company is presently using office space leased by one of its directors.
The Company is not being charged for the use of this office space.

NOTE 3 - REVENUES

A breakdown of the revenues earned for the year ended December 31, 2005, is as follows:

Firm Trading	$ (4,080)
--------------	-------------------

NOTE 4 - INCOME TAXES

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are provided for significant income and expense items recognized in different years for tax and financial reporting purposes and net operating losses available to offset future taxable income.

At December 31, 2005, the Company recorded a full valuation allowance for the deferred tax assets as the Company's ability to realize these benefits is not "more likely than not". Accordingly, no deferred tax assets are reported in the accompanying statement of financial position at December 31, 2005. The Company has available at December 31, 2005, approximately $ 2,370,000 of unused operating loss carryforwards that may be applied against future taxable income and will expire in years through 2025.

NOTE 5 - OTHER MATTERS

The Company is presently operating under certain restrictions imposed by the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD). These restrictions are as follows:

- 1) The Company cannot conduct any proprietary trading or have any market making activities.
- 2) The Company cannot conduct any underwriting activities, including private placements and public offerings.
- 3) The Company is limited to ten (10) associated persons, both registered and unregistered involved in sales activities.

INFORMATION RELATING TO POSSESSION OR CONTROL REQUIREMENTS

UNDER RULE 15c3-3 OF THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2005

The Company claims an exemption from Rule 15c3-3 under Section (k) (2) (ii) in that all customer transactions clear through another broker-dealer on a fully disclosed basis. In May 2004, the Company entered into a correspondent agreement with Computer Clearing Services, Inc.

Independent Auditor's Report on Internal
Accounting Control Required by SEC Rule 17a-5

ROBERT N. PERLESS, CPA
RETIRED

Board of Directors
ASG Securities, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of ASG Securities, Inc. (the Company), for the year ended December 31, 2005, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13.
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.
3. Obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by rule 15c3-3.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal accounting control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgements by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that misstatements caused by error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2005 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., or other designated regulatory organizations and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5 (g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specific parties.
